Artist Statement: Primarily a stone carver & sculptor, my creative interests are far-ranging, covering many mediums and styles to suit most needs to complete a particular project. My abstract stone sculptures have been described as water-like, flowing and liquid, or as if someone had scooped into the stone like ice cream. As a whole my work ranges from ribbon-like abstracts to classically inspired figures, bas-relief and whimsical characters; they draw the viewer in, whispering, inviting to come closer. My military illustrations, paintings and drawings are award winning, some in the permanent collection housed at The Pentagon. A retired Air Force senior NCO, now working as a Medical Illustrator in San Antonio, I have the honor of being the Chairperson for Forward, Arts!, an art immersion program created to service veterans living with PTSD. I'm also an active member of the Texas Sculpture Group, Texas Society of Sculptors, San Antonio Art League & Museum, and Air Force Art Program.
