Artist Statement: Janice Yow Hides, co- owner Hides Fine Art and instructor at Hides Academy of Fine Art, paints in the representational manner. Each year she and her students provide an intense day of learning for local middle school students free of charge. Students paint their first oil paintings with one on one instruction to amazing results. Their paintings will be featured along with Hides art and the gallery paintings of local and national artists. Hides is a national award-winning artist with exhibitions in museums.
